

Donor-Initiated Fundraising Policy

Thank you for expressing your confidence in the Community Foundation for Nantucket (“CFN”) by establishing a fund with us. CFN is pleased to work with you in helping to develop your fund. The chief responsibility of CFN’s development office is to raise endowment through acquisition of major and planned gifts. Unfortunately, CFN does not have the staff to operate public fundraising events for its component funds.

In establishing a fund at CFN, there may be times when you would like to organize a fundraiser to raise dollars for the fund. Most often CFN receives the net income from a fundraiser and does not acknowledge the individual contributors. However, there may be times when individual contributors to a fundraiser would want to receive a charitable deduction. CFN has developed this policy statement to help guide those of you planning fundraising events and solicitations (“Fundraising Groups”).

When Fundraising Groups conduct fundraising activities and solicitations on behalf of CFN’s component funds, you must keep in mind that for tax purposes such fundraising is being done on CFN’s behalf. This raises a number of significant tax and accounting issues. For example, activities must be conducted under CFN’s observation and fiscal guidance to ensure that donors to the fund are entitled to the appropriate tax deductions, to protect the Fundraising Groups from unintended tax consequences to themselves, and to determine that CFN is not exposed to penalties for failing to make required solicitation disclosures.

The requirements that follow are designed to protect donors and groups raising funds for a component fund at CFN. We appreciate your cooperation in fulfilling these requirements.

Foundation Approval of Events

All public fundraising events require advance written approval from CFN. Before undertaking any such event, the fundraising group must submit a written proposal that includes the following information:

- Description: Describe the event or other effort to raise money for the fund. Briefly outline the fundraising goal, the activities of the event, your experience in conducting this type of campaign or event and why the activity is sure to be a success.
- Contact person: This person will serve as the main source of communication between CFN and the fundraising group. Please supply the contact person's name, address, phone number, and e-mail address. This will help facilitate the approval and acknowledgement processes.
- Budget: Attach an estimated budget for the fundraiser that includes projected revenue and a detailed list of projected expenses.

Please allow at least 30 days for foundation review. If the event is approved, the fundraising group will proceed in accordance with CFN's guidelines. All uses of CFN's name in advertising and promotion must be approved in advance by CFN. All fundraising materials should make clear, where applicable, that funds are being raised on behalf of rather than by CFN. CFN may assess an administrative fee against the fund to defray the cost of additional services required by the fundraising event or solicitation.

You are not authorized to bind CFN to any contract or agreement unless specifically authorized in writing.

CFN's Responsibilities

CFN will be responsible for:

- The management of such money and property as it may accept into the component fund from donors, other contributors and sources.
- The application of principal and income to charitable uses, all in accord with CFN's governing documents.
- Providing appropriate acknowledgements to donors.

The Fundraising Group's Responsibilities

The fundraising group will retain responsibility for all public fundraising events and matters related to them, including:

- Payment of all costs and expenses
- Compliance with laws
- Reporting and other requirements of every kind such as licensing, tax payment, and liability insurance covering CFN

Payment of Expenses

The fundraising group will be responsible for all expenses and will maintain appropriate financial controls and records related to fundraising events. Expenses may be incurred only in accordance with the event budget that CFN has approved. Prior to the event we will discuss with you whether the expenses will be paid by CFN or by the group. Regardless of who pays the expenses, you must provide copies of invoices and receipts to CFN so that we may fulfill our record keeping and reporting responsibilities. Keep in mind that if the fund in question is a donor advised fund, CFN cannot provide reimbursement of expenses to the fund's donors, advisors, and related persons. Where appropriate, CFN can provide tax acknowledgements allowing donors to deduct reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the fundraiser.

Designation of Checks and Receipt of Cash

Checks related to the event must be made payable to the component fund of CFN. Cash receipts are to be deposited intact. That is, cash receipts may not be used to pay expenses, and then the net cash amount deposited. Within one week after the event, all proceeds, checks and cash, must be delivered to CFN along with an accounting of all monies received.

Tax Requirements and Acknowledgements

Strict IRS requirements and state charitable solicitation laws impact any fundraising. If the steps outlined below are not taken, donors will be denied a tax deduction, members of the fundraising group might unexpectedly find themselves subject to tax on the funds they raise, and either CFN or the fundraising group might be subjected to penalties.

Donors who contribute $250 or more will need a written acknowledgement from CFN in order to claim a charitable deduction for the gift. CFN will provide the appropriate acknowledgement to donors only if it receives certain detailed information. Specifically, the fundraising group must provide CFN with:

1. The donor's complete name and address.
2. The date and amount of the contribution.
3. Whether the contribution was in cash or property.
4. If property, a description of the type of property and a good faith estimate of its fair market value.
5. A detailed description of any goods and services provided in exchange for the contribution.

Contributions of services, while appreciated, generally are not deductible.

If the fundraising group provides goods or services in exchange for a donation, certain disclosures are required. For example, if the group is sponsoring a dinner, the donor can only deduct the excess of the ticket price above the fair market value of the dinner. This limitation on the deduction, known as a “quid pro quo disclosure” must be disclosed at the time of solicitation. Disclosure on the event ticket is a typical method for making this disclosure.

CFN will work with the fundraising group in determining the fair market value amounts and the appropriate disclosure language for the event. However, CFN will have to work with the group prior to the solicitation activity and will need information pertaining to the event such as ticket prices and the value of the goods or services the donors will receive. The fundraising group needs to see that the required quid pro quo disclosures are made.

- Raffle tickets are not deductible. This must be stated clearly on the face of distributed tickets.
- Rummage sale purchases are not deductible.
- Auctions—Foundation staff will review proposed ideas for auctions on a case-by-case basis and may seek the assistance of its legal counsel in doing so.

Liability Insurance and Liability for Losses

The fundraising group will contact CFN prior to the event to assess the need to secure liability insurance covering members of the group and covering CFN. Insurance coverage must be reviewed and approved by CFN.

The fundraising group will be responsible for all losses incurred by the event. CFN will not be held responsible for such losses. CFN may require the fundraising group to purchase a letter of credit or provide a written personal guarantee.

State Charitable Solicitation Laws

The Community Foundation for Nantucket has a certificate of solicitation that is issued by the Office of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. A copy is available from CFN at the fundraising group's request.
